Administrative instruction

Delegation of authority under the Financial Regulations and Rules[1] of the United Nations

The Under-Secretary-General for Management, pursuant to section 4.2 of Secretary-General's bulletin ST/SGB/1997/1, and in accordance with financial rule 101.1, promulgates the following to specify the officials to whom authority and responsibility are delegated for specified aspects of the Financial Regulations and Rules:

Section 1
Officials to whom authority is delegated

Authority and responsibility to implement the Financial Regulations and Rules are hereby delegated to the Assistant Secretary-General/Controller and to the Assistant Secretary-General for Common Support Services, as indicated in the annex. These officials may, in turn, delegate authority and responsibility to other officials, as appropriate.

Section 2
Terms and conditions for the exercise of delegated authority

2.1 Exercise of this delegated authority entails responsibility for ensuring full implementation of the relevant financial regulations and rules of the United Nations and related administrative instructions. Any exception to the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations requires prior approval by the Under-Secretary-General for Management. Failure to abide by the terms and conditions of this delegation of authority may result in its withdrawal.

2.2 The act of delegating authority and responsibility does not absolve the official to whom authority was initially delegated of accountability for the manner in which the authority is exercised. Accordingly, the Assistant Secretary-General/Controller and the Assistant Secretary-General for Common Support Services may be held personally accountable, and must likewise hold those to whom they have delegated

[1] The revised Financial Regulations of the United Nations were approved by the General Assembly in its decision 57/573 of 20 December 2002. The Secretary-General promulgated the new Financial Regulations and Rules in document ST/SGB/2003/7 of 9 May 2003.
